

Italy's Minister of Economy and Finance Visits GFLEC

On October 13, we were honored to host Italy's Minister of Economy and Finance, Pier Carlo Padoan, and his delegation at GFLEC. Given Professor Annamaria Lusardi's recent appointment as Director of Italy's new Financial Education Committee, the visit reaffirmed the scope in which our Director is working with policy makers to promote financial education in Italy.

This was also a great opportunity for the GFLEC team to discuss the Center's research and efforts in promoting financial literacy. The aim of the Committee, to implement a National Strategy for Financial Education in Italy, strongly aligns with GFLEC's own goal to improve financial literacy globally.
